S2H3 Tail of the Trail 17 Jan 2010, Run #273, Hares: Stumbles and $100 Skid Mark. Location: Soi Nichada Thani, Nonthaburi. Key attendees 33 Total Hashers including 26 regulars, 4 visitors, 2 hares, and 1 reported New Boot! Secret Scribe Report ... How does one pick up farang women in Bangkok? You flash at them at taxi stands. It works! OK it might take more than a few flashes if you don't have Tiger Wood's family jewel.....

Shared a cab with Snake and arrived a few minutes early. It was good to see some familiar faces: Splat, Sugar-Daddy, Stumbles, Bugs, Canadian Bacon, Nearest and Dearest, Noriega, Kadaffi and several Thai women who's names I keep forgetting. So it's easier to winged it and just greet them with a loud Sawadii Pi Mai Krab! I could also take a chance and just call them Noi, Pui, Tim, etc ;-)

Managed to interest Canadian Bacon to consider signing up with a sperm bank; considering the samples available at the hash are generally expired and probably fermented. Still, for anyone keen to volunteer, make sure you show up at future Sunday runs. You might get lucky.

Soon the hare called all into a circle and gave some advice and mis-directions; unfortunately she seems to be speaking in a strange English dialect of which this scribe recognizes as 500 BC Greek.

The Run: It was like running through that most scenic and varied part of the Serengeti Plains. The landscape changes from savannah, to hilly woodlands, to open grasslands. In the distance, you can see the dust from the bi-annual migration of zebras and blue wildebeest, while predatory lions and cheetahs were lying in wait for any stragglers. Hashers have to risk their lives doing checks, with the knowledge that this could be their last hash. This is what I told my non-hasher friends.

Drunken Donut after taking the wife to the hash...

Actually the run was a bone-jarring, knee-destroying 10.5 km trial through the "outer slum" of ISB. Most of the checks were solved faster than I had hoped. On a long straight stretch along Tiwanon Road, Big Package was sighted waiting for the ISB shuttle to bring him back. Still everyone made it back, including 2 visitors which Splat was trying her damnest to get rid of. And the weather was nice and cool.

Having had a full lunch of over-priced shark-fin, bird-nest soup, etc at Yaowarat earlier, this scribe had to skipped most of the very tempting snacks on offer.

The Circle: Down-downs were lavished on visitors, returners, and hashers who knew better. Unfortunately this scribe is suffering from brain fade, so it must have been fun, and the on-on-on even better/funnier. (At this point the onsec intervenes with some uninteresting facts): ...

Hares Stumbles and Skid Mark were thanked with a down down by GM his majesty Adorable (a rambling thought, hash names are usually given because they are often opposite the truth ...does this mean Adorable was really given in sarcasm ... ok just an inane thought that comes when writing under the influence of alcohol). 4 visitors who I do not have names for because I lost them (two of them virgins) were welcomed with down downs. One Jeffery Graham was persuaded to become a new boot and welcomed. Then there were the returners; not sure if they all drank but they were: Khadaffi, Noriega, Hot Mama, Sugar Daddy, City Girl, Nut Groper, Slap, Katoey Kickboxer, 100$ Skidmark, Lecherous, Jumpstart, Non Stop, Sukanva, Small Change, Big Package, Bangkok Bank Girl, Stumbles, and Canadian Bacon! (And for the record there are no rules on returners – but if you missed the previous hash you get your name in print for being an incontinent hasher!) Now back to the scribe's write up

If some of you hashers think this write-up is too short, I'll leave you with this saying from Lao-tzu:

*Thirty spokes unite in one nave;
the utility of the cart depends on the hollow centre in which the axle turns.
Clay is molded into a vessel;*

normally first Friday each month!

-Once a Month: Bangkok Full Moon H3, Mixed

-Once a Month: Nonthaburi H3 (Gentlemen only; by Invitation)

*the utility of the vessel depends on its hollow interior.
Doors and windows are cut out in order to make a house;
the utility of the house depends on the empty spaces.
Thus, while the existence of things may be good,
it is the non-existent in them which makes them serviceable.*

Hash Humor. If you are not tired of reading by now ... you will be ... some deep thoughts from the master of zen

Be here now.
Be someplace else later.
Is that so complicated?

Drink tea and nourish life.
With the first sip... joy.
With the second... satisfaction.
With the third, peace.
With the fourth, a danish.

Wherever you go, there you are.
Your luggage is another story.

Accept misfortune as a blessing.
Do not wish for perfect health or a life without problems.
What would you talk about?

There is no escaping karma.
In a previous life, you never called,
you never wrote, you never visited.
And whose fault was that?

Zen is not easy.
It takes effort to attain nothingness.
And then what do you have?
Bupkes.

The Tao does not speak.
The Tao does not blame.
The Tao does not take sides.
The Tao has no expectations.
The Tao demands nothing of others.
The Tao is not Jewish.

Breathe in. Breathe out.
Breathe in. Breathe out.
Forget this and attaining Enlightenment will be the least of your problems.

Let your mind be as a floating cloud.
Let your stillness be as the wooded glen.
And sit up straight. You'll never meet the Buddha with such rounded shoulders.

Be patient and achieve all things.
Be impatient and achieve all things faster.

To Find the Buddha, look within.
Deep inside you are ten thousand flowers.
Each flower blossoms ten thousand times.
Each blossom has ten thousand petals.
You might want to see a specialist.

To practice Zen and the art of Jewish motorcycle maintenance, do the following:
get rid of the motorcycle.
What were you thinking?

Be aware of your body.
Be aware of your perceptions.
Keep in mind that not every physical sensation is a symptom of a terminal illness.

The Torah says, "Love thy neighbor as thyself."
The Buddha says there is no "self."
So, maybe you are off the hook.

The Buddha taught that one should practice loving kindness to all sentient beings. Still, would it kill you to find a nice sentient being who happens to be Jewish?

Though only your skin, sinews, and bones remain,
though your blood and flesh dry up and wither away,
yet shall you meditate and not stir until you have attained full Enlightenment.
But, first, a little nosh
